Dear Gen. Walters;

It has been a long time since I knew you

STAT

I lost contact with what was going on there except for what little biased news appeared in the press. I followed your transfer through that media with great interest. I hope that with your present job that you still have parties memorable of those [redacted] and that those nice young ladies (such as I met at your place in Brazilian) are still present.

Besides wanting to keep in touch I have developed an interest in the C.I.A. and wonder if you know of any opportunities that I might be qualified for within your agency. Since my father had been military and through my love for our country and overseas experience I believe that I might be of service to you while doing something meaningful and interesting. If possible could you inform me of what I must do to pursue this interest. Thanks very much and best wishes.
